Interim Norms for DOSO Subscales

Black circle = 50th percentile score
Dark blue = 25th to 75th percentile range
Light blue = 10th to 90th percentile range

Computed using data for the 40-item DOSO questionnaire. These interim norms also may be used for data from the 28-item DOSO forms (short form values for Speech Cues and Listening Effort are only slightly different).

Comments:

______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________